

Leelanau English as a Second Language Institute

Summer 2010 June 20–July 31

Located on the shores of Lake Michigan, the Leelanau ESL Institute is the ideal summer program for international students ages 14–18 who will be entering grades 9–12. Small class sizes—limited to ten students per level—help to ensure improved English fluency and intensive TOEFL preparation.

ESL Program

- Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced levels
- Emphasis on speaking, listening, reading, writing, applied math concepts and cultural assimilation
- Intermediate and Advanced students may also enroll in some of our academic offerings with the Summer Academy Program
- Recreational and cultural activities designed to introduce students to a healthy American lifestyle
- Shared living with native English speaking students
- TOEFL instruction offered to Intermediate and Advanced level students
- Ideal transitional program to American boarding schools
